

The Wanamaker Store.

This morning, a showing in Summer hats—light and airy things, as Summer hats should be—speaking of nothing more substantial than flowers and sunshine.

A large assortment and one exquisite to the eye without compensatory purse-aches.

Buying and Selling Shoes

THIS is on shoe matters in general, and our shoe matters in particular.

The shoe store here is a marked example of the good that comes out of bigness. The race may not always be to the swift,—all the expert opinions generally lean that way,—but there is no question that in mercantile affairs the best is to the biggest.

Ours is one of the very largest retail shoe businesses in America, and is getting bigger every day. There are very few, if any, jobbing houses that sell more shoes than we retail between our two stores. Our retail prices can consequently be made to approach, and often to be made less than, the jobber's prices.

There are more things than merely lowest prices to be considered, and the same reasons that make our prices littlest, make our selections the best. Our very best shoes have no superiors in the world, as shoes. Our lowest prices have no superiors in the world as value-producers. So there you are,—not only the best if you want it, but the cheapest, and—best of all, the combination of those two,—the best cheapest.

We have shoes at $1.50 and shoes at $7. In other words, a complete shoe store. There is nothing in footwear for babies, children, women or men that is worth having, that we have not. And cheapest.

The Printed Muslin Japan
We started yesterday with fifty thousand yards at 25c. a yard. There are many thousand yards less to-day, but there is still unimpaired selection.

Fifty-cent goods, always, and especially good and especially pretty. There have been no finer patterns under our roof.

A Summer fabric almost ideal, especially for semi-dress wear. Light, silky, strong, exquisite, and a half-price on it now that multiplies its beauties by two.

New and Further Reductions in Dress Goods
It's a harvest time in dress goods bargains, and we are gathering them for you right and left.

Told you of many yesterday. Here are more, with a review of what is left from yesterday's selling:

At 40c. yd., reduced from 50c.—Printed white and black stripes in shirt waist patterns of stripes and figures.
At 30c. yd., reduced from 40c.—Printed white and black stripes in shirt waist patterns of stripes and figures.
At 20c. yd., reduced from 30c.—Printed white and black stripes in shirt waist patterns of stripes and figures.

At 10c. yd., reduced from 20c.—Printed white and black stripes in shirt waist patterns of stripes and figures.
At 5c. yd., reduced from 10c.—Printed white and black stripes in shirt waist patterns of stripes and figures.
At 2c. yd., reduced from 5c.—Printed white and black stripes in shirt waist patterns of stripes and figures.

Women's Capes
Seventy-five of the prettiest capes we have are marked to go out. Of silk and cloth; graceful, jaunty and approved, and just the completeness that an evening costume requires for its out-of-door equipment.

Twenty Dollars Each
Prices yesterday were up to $36. Good styles, and good qualities, too. Only objection is that the various lots have become too small, and so out they go. They are mostly in solid colors, newest shades, though there are some handsome plaids among them. Satin waists in the lot, too. All sizes, but not in any one style. All the new effects in cording, plating and stitching. $5 and $5.50 yesterday. Choose at $3.50.

Doilies, Scarfs, Centerpieces, Etc.
An import sends us 1,000 fine Renaissance pieces, with linen centres,—that we're enabled to sell cheaply—two-thirds prices. Fresh, clean goods in latest designs, comprising various sized doilies, covers for sideboards, bureaus and trays, table-scarfs, and so on. Our own importation joins forces, and all are sent to the front with uniformly little prices. Judge how little by these. A few from many:

Finger Bowl Doilies, round or square, 50c. and 60c. each.
Place Doilies, round or square, 50c. each.
Centerpieces, round or square, $1.50 to $2.50 each.
Small Tea Cloth, round or square, $3.50 to $5 each.
Towel Covers, oblong and oval, $1.25, $2 and $3 each.
Table Scarfs and Runners, $1.25, $2 and $3 each.

Engraving and Stationery
Here's a repetition of an offer made a few days ago—so good that we wish it to be most widely known. This is the proposition:

Choose a monogram from 36 styles; we will cut it in steel, and stamp for you in any color dyed sheets in fine lines in satin finish, and give you 50 envelopes to match, all for $1.
Then there's a new paper—“Dawn Gray,” it's called; 8 sizes are shown, all in kid finish, 20c. a quire; envelopes, 20c. package.

JOHN WANAMAKER
Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co., Broadway, 4th av., 9th and 10th sts., N.Y.

Merino Underwear.

CHILDREN'S SIZES.

Swiss ribbed Vests,—silk and wool or wool and cotton. Short or long sleeves,—high or low necks, 35 cents each; Value 60 cents to $1.00.

James McCreery & Co.,
Twenty-third Street.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Shady Nooks for Summer Days.

We have made the most enjoyable summer furniture. For the lawn—tables, enameled in red or forest green, topped with heavily fringed umbrellas, for shade or sprinkle their shelter for the grateful. Round “country-box” sofas, quaintly patterned, in red or rustic colorings, their hooded tops offering shade and seclusion from draughts.

For the veranda—cabinet settees; a little centre cabinet and shelves, giving space and protection for books or work. Smaller ones have a single seat and end cabinet. The most decorative summer cushions from 50 cts. in artistic Oriental cotton stuffs.
